Forecast for Sunday 09 Oct 2022

Weather: Cloudy with rain soon reaching Skye and Knoydart, extending eastwards to most ranges during the morning. The rain will become heavy for a time, especially over hills near to West Coast, turning to sleet on highest peaks before clearing late in the afternoon. Clear periods and scattered showers following during evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 60% reducing 20% by late morning, mostly confined to northeast of area. Chances improving 60% during evening.

Low cloud and visibility: Good visibility at first with canopy of cloud mostly about 800m, lowering to about 600 to 700m as rain arrives. Also turning misty with poor visibility in heavier rain. The visibility will become good by early evening with clouds lifting and breaking up.
